GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS HARRELL TO HISTORIC MURFREESBORO COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed L. Taylor Harrell of Ahoskie to the Historic Murfreesboro Commission.

Harrell is vice president and regional business development officer for Southern Bank in Murfreesboro. He is a member and past president of the Ahoskie Jaycees and is serving his second term as chairman of the Ridgecroft School Board of Directors. He received his Bachelor's degree in business administration from UNC Chapel Hill and is a graduate of the N.C. School of Banking at UNC Chapel Hill.

The commission acquires, preserves and restores historic properties in Murfreesboro. There are 34 members on the commission, each serving a five-year term. The governor appoints 30 members, each serving a five-year term. The secretary of the Department of Cultural Resources, mayor of Murfreesboro, chairman of the Hertford County Commissioners and president of Chowan College also serve on the commission.
